AI Enablement & Adoption

Boise, ID · Remote · ryan.garver.career@gmail.com · linkedin.com/in/ryan-garver-ai · github.com/rgcareer

AI enablement and adoption professional with years of experience helping people adopt new technology, across retail, enterprise tech, and SaaS. I get AI into the hands of non-technical teams and build the tools myself, the way a forward-deployed or solutions engineer works: sit with the customer, build what fits their workflow, and make it stick. My background pairs people leadership (teams of 15 to 35) with hands-on AI work in agent and prompt engineering, workflow automation, and change management.

EXPERIENCE

AI Product Builder & Implementation Consultant

Current

Smart Business AI LLC · Remote

Builds AI-powered tools for home-service businesses with Claude, ChatGPT, and Perplexity, aimed at owners who are not technical.

Owns the end-to-end product lifecycle: customer research, planning, development, positioning, marketing, delivery, and support.

Applies prompt engineering, AI workflow design, and automation (Zapier / Make) to turn business needs into implementation-ready solutions and SOPs.
